

Language services for better care of migrant seniors

Aims:

- Improving access to quality language services for:
 - » aged care providers
 - » Culturally and Linguistically Diverse (CALD) seniors, their families, and communities
- Deepening the skills of the interpreters and translators for aged care settings

Panellists:

- Aged Care Providers
The Issues
- Association for Culturally Appropriate Services (AfcAS)
Language Services in Aged Care
- National Accreditation Authority for Translators and Interpreters (NAATI)
Language Aides & Certified Translators and Interpreters
- All Graduates
Language Services for remote and regional clients, Context, particularly for CALD people
- WA Country Health Services
Communicating with migrant seniors online
- Department of Home Affairs
Access to Translating & Interpreting Services

Those who register for the seminar will receive a recording after the event.

Wednesday 6 July 2022

8.30am – 11am AWST /
10.30am – 1.00pm AEST

Online or in person
544 William St, Mt Lawley WA

- $15 registration fee
- $7.50 for AfcAS members or NAATI-credentialed translators and interpreters (eligible for 10 PD points).

Click here to register:
Seminar Registration Survey

For all enquiries please contact:
Mary Gurgone at info@afcas.net