

Respecting Human Rights of Seniors with Diverse Language Needs

Details

3 OCTOBER 2024

9.30am – 11.30am AWST

11.30am – 1.30pm AEST

Online Event

- $30 for general admission
- $20 for AfCAS members/NAATI credentialed/All Graduates employees and students

Those who register for the webinar will receive a recording after the event the event, a certificate of attendance and 10 PD points towards NAATI recertification.

Aims:

- Increase understanding of the rights to an Interpreter &/Or professionally translated document.
- Share strategies for “users” of language services to work with an interpreter or translator, especially service provider personnel who are not from Culturally and Linguistically Diverse backgrounds.
- Share information on Language services in specific service areas.

Target Audience

- Aged care service provider personnel
- Culturally and Linguistically Diverse (CALD) seniors, and their families
- CALD communities and advocates
- Agencies related to aged care Interpreters and/or translators for aged care settings

Speakers & panel

For full presenter profiles click here.

ERIKA GONZALEZ

Associate Professor/President
RMIT UNIVERSITY/AUSIT

Presenting:

Enhancing Collaboration in a Multicultural Context: Effective Strategies for Working with Interpreters and Translators

SONIA DI MEZZA

Human Rights Lawyer, CEO
MIGRANT AND REFUGEE SETTLEMENT SERVICES (MARSS)

Presenting:

Language skills for a rights-based, strengths-based approach with older people from CALD backgrounds

ALEX ZHANG

Lawyer
SUPREME COURT OF WA

Presenting:

Experiences, access to justice and national standards

POONAM DARU

Program Director
CULTURE VERSE

Presenting:

Free translation service for aged care providers

Click here to register:
Seminar Registration Survey

For all enquiries please contact:
Mary Gurgone at info@afcas.net

