LORETTA BALDASSAR

Loretta Baldassar is Professor of Anthropology and Sociology at the University of Western Australia.

She has published extensively on migration, with a focus on families and caregiving. Her research team works to combat social isolation and improve digital literacy for older people, particularly people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds.

MARY GURGONE

Mary is the National Director of Fortis Consulting. She is a national leader in cultural diversity and community development. Her experience spans education, training, audit, evaluation and policy roles. Mary also heads the Partners in Culturally Appropriate Care program as Project Director for Western Australia.

IRENE MOONEY

Irene Mooney has been the CEO of MYVISTA since 2015, following many years in CEO and executive positions within the WA Aged Care Industry both in metropolitan and rural areas. Irene has served on many industry and organisation boards and committees for Aged Care and Disability, Health Care and Education.

Each member will choose what service/s their organisation requires.

“This is the best example I have come across in my consultations around Australia. It ticks all the boxes: it provides for the needs of the Culturally and Linguistically Diverse (CALD) clients in a sustainable way.”

Stated by a Senior Officer of the Federation of Ethnic Communities Council of Australia (May 2018)

Members are joining AfCAS because the Association will increase:

- awareness of CALD seniors' aged care needs and CALD aged care services
- financial viability of CALD specific aged care services
- sustainability of CALD specific aged care services
- the quality of care provided to CALD seniors

Join AfCAS for FREE until October 2018.

AfCAS objectives:

To actively foster and support organisations to provide culturally appropriate services for the CALD population regardless of geographic location or diversity of needs.

To foster a collaborative approach to member organisations to provide culturally appropriate services

Facilitate access to specialised services for member organisations to support CALD clients, e.g. translating and interpretation, financial/reporting services

To promote and support members to establish and deliver culturally appropriate services

Build capacity of the CALD service sector to be resilient and sustainable

To advocate for improved quality, accountability and accessibility for delivery of services to the CALD community

To work in partnership with other key agencies to avoid duplication of CALD services and promote efficient use of available resources.
